WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

- (a) Our Company’s values are the foundation of how we behave and interact with each other, our members, suppliers, shareholders, and other stakeholders. Together our values reflect the priorities of the business and provide guidance in decision making.
- (b) Our corporate governance policies have been developed to align with our values to ensure that we observe the highest standards of fair dealing, honesty and integrity in our business activities.
- (c) Our Whistleblower Policy (this “Policy”) has been put in place to ensure employees and other Disclosers (defined below) can raise concerns regarding any misconduct or improper state of affairs or circumstances (including unethical, illegal, corrupt or other inappropriate conduct) without being subject to victimisation, harassment or discriminatory treatment.

2. PURPOSE

This Policy aims to:

- (a) encourage Disclosers to report an issue if they reasonably believe someone has engaged in serious wrongdoing;
- (b) to help deter wrongdoing, in line with the entity’s risk management and governance framework;
- (c) to ensure Disclosers can disclose wrongdoing safely, securely and with confidence that they will be protected and supported;
- (d) to ensure that information disclosed by Disclosers are dealt with appropriately and on a timely basis;
- (e) to provide transparency around the entity’s framework for receiving, handling and investigating disclosures;
- (f) to support the Company’s values, codes of conduct, ethics policy, and long-term sustainability and reputation;

 - (iii) an associate of the entity; and
 - (iv) a relative, dependent or spouse of an individual in clause 3(a)(i)-(iii) above (e.g. relatives, dependents of a spouse of current and former employees, contractors, consultants, service providers, suppliers and business partners).
- (b) A Discloser qualifies for the protections of this Policy and the relevant provisions of the Corporations Act if they have made:
 - (i) a disclosure of information relating to a ‘disclosable matter’ (e.g. information that the Discloser has reasonable grounds to suspect concerns misconduct, or an improper state of affairs or circumstances in relation to an entity or, if the entity is a body corporate, a related body corporate of the entity) matter directly to an “eligible recipient” (refer to clause 6 below) or to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, Australian Prudential Regulation Authority or another prescribed Commonwealth body;
 - (ii) a disclosure to a legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or legal representation about the operation of the Corporations Act whistleblower provisions;
 - (iii) an ‘emergency disclosure’ or ‘public interest disclosure’ (refer to clauses 6(i) and 6(j) below).
- (c) The protections in this Policy will also apply to anyone who has made a disclosure of information relating to the Company to a legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or legal representation in relation to whistleblowing protection laws.

4. MATTERS THAT SHOULD BE REPORTED

- (a) Disclosures that are not about disclosable matters do not qualify for protection under the Corporations Act (or the Taxation Administration Act, where relevant). Such disclosures may also be protected under other legislation.

- (b) Any matter that a Discloser has reasonable grounds to believe is misconduct or an improper state of affairs or circumstances or is in material breach of the Company's policies should be reported in accordance with this Policy. Disclosable matters also involve information where the Discloser has reasonable grounds to suspect that the information indicates that the Company (including its employees or officers) has engaged in conduct that constitutes an offence against, or a contravention of, a provision of any Australian legislation.
- (c) Reportable matters include without limitation any conduct that involves:
- (i) dishonest behaviour;
 - (ii) fraudulent activity;
 - (iii) unlawful, corrupt or irregular use of company funds or practices;
 - (iv) offering or accepting a bribe;
 - (v) illegal activities (including theft, dealing in or use of illicit drugs, violence or threatened violence and criminal damage against property);
 - (vi) financial irregularities;
 - (vii) unethical behaviour, including anything that would breach the Company Code of Conduct;
 - (viii) improper or misleading accounting or financial reporting practices;
 - (ix) any information that indicates a significant risk to public safety or the stability of, or confidence in, the financial system is also a disclosable matter, even if it does not involve a breach of a particular law;

 - (xv) a serious risk to public health, public safety or the environment; or
 - (xvi) any other conduct which may cause loss to the Company or be otherwise detrimental to the interests of the Company.

- (d) A Discloser can still qualify for protection under this Policy even if their disclosure turns out to be incorrect. However, the Company discourages deliberate false reporting by Disclosers (i.e. information reported that the Discloser knows to be untrue).
- (e) A Discloser is unlikely to qualify for protection under this Policy in respect of person work-related grievances that do not relate to detriment or threat of detriment to the Discloser. Such grievances do not relate to any conduct or alleged conduct about a 'disclosable matter', and relate to matters such as an inter-personal conflict between employees, employment related decisions regarding an employee, or disciplinary action taken against an employee. A personal work-related grievance may qualify for protection if it accompanies a report of a disclosable matter, the Discloser suffers or is threatened with detriment for raising the grievance, or the Discloser seeks legal advice about the operation of the whistleblower protections under the Act.

5. RESPONSIBILITY TO REPORT

The Company relies on its employees and Disclosers to help maintain and grow its culture of honest and ethical behaviour. It is therefore expected that any Discloser who becomes aware of such conduct will make a report.

6. REPORTING TO ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS

- (a) Disclosure can be made to an "eligible recipient" who's role within the Company is to receive disclosures that qualify for protection. Eligible recipients in relation to the Company are:

 - (ii) the Discloser must first inform the eligible recipient that they wish to make a report under this Policy.
- (c) An eligible recipient may direct the Discloser to make the report to an external whistleblowing service, if they consider it appropriate in the circumstances.

- (d) Reports made under this Policy should describe the grounds for the report and provide as much detail as possible of all relevant facts and supporting documentation (if any).
- (e) Information contained in reports and provided by Disclosers in the course of an investigation will be kept confidential, except as required by law or where disclosure is necessary to regulatory authorities, law enforcement agencies or professional advisors to the Company.
- (f) A Discloser can obtain additional information by contacting the Company's whistleblower protection officer or equivalent or an independent legal adviser).
- (g) Any disclosures made to a legal practice for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or legal representation in relation to the operation of the whistleblower provisions in the Corporations Act are protected. This clause applies even in the event that the legal practitioner concludes that a disclosure does not relate a 'disclosable matter' as defined under this Policy.
- (h) Disclosures can be made to a journalist or parliamentarian under certain circumstances and qualifies for protection under this Policy. It is important that the Discloser understands the criteria for making either a 'public interest disclosure' or an 'emergency disclosure' and in order for either of these circumstances to apply, the disclosure must:
 - (i) have been previously made to ASIC, APRA or another Commonwealth body prescribed by regulation; and
 - (ii) written notice must be provided to the body in clause 6(h)(i) to which the disclosure was made.
- (i) The first of the circumstances referred to in clause 6(h) is the 'public interest disclosure' which is the disclosure of information to a journalist or a parliamentarian where:

 - (iv) before making the public interest disclosure, the Discloser has given written notice to the body in clause 6(i)(i) above (i.e. the body to which the previous disclosure was made) that includes sufficient information to identify the previous disclosure and states that the Discloser intends to make a public interest disclosure.
- (j) The second of the circumstances referred to in clause 6(h) is the 'emergency disclosure' which is the disclosure of information to a journalist of a parliamentarian where:

- (i) the Discloser has previously made a disclosure of the information to ASIC, APRA or another Commonwealth body prescribed by regulation;
 - (ii) the Discloser has reasonable grounds to believe that the information concerns a substantial and imminent danger to the health or safety of one or more persons or to the natural environment;
 - (iii) before making the emergency disclosure, the Discloser has given written notice to the body in clause 6(j)(i) (i.e. the body to which the previous disclosure was made) that includes sufficient information to identify the previous disclosure and states that the Discloser intends to make an emergency disclosure; and
 - (iv) the extent of the information disclosed in the emergency disclosure is no greater than is necessary to inform the journalist or parliamentarian of the substantial and imminent danger.
- (k) The Discloser should contact an independent legal adviser before making a 'public interest disclosure' or an 'emergency disclosure'.

- (c) All reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that a Discloser will not be subject to any form of victimisation, discrimination, harassment, demotion, dismissal or prejudice, because they have made a report. However, this Policy will not protect the Discloser if they are also involved in or connected to the improper conduct or illegal activities that are the subject of a report.
- (d) The protections available to Disclosers include:
 - (i) Identity protection (confidentiality): it is illegal for a person to disclose the identity of a Discloser or information that is likely to lead to the identification of the Discloser (which they have obtained directly or indirectly because the Discloser made a disclosure that qualifies for protection). The exception to this form of protection is if a person discloses the identity of the Discloser:
 - a. to ASIC, APRA or a member of the Australian Federal Police;

- b. to a legal practitioner (for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or legal representation about the whistleblower provisions in the Corporations Act)
 - c. to a person or body prescribed by regulations; or
 - d. with the consent of the Discloser;
- (ii) protection from detrimental acts or omissions: a person cannot engage in conduct that causes detriment to a Discloser (or another person), in relation to a disclosure, if the person believes or suspects that the Discloser made (or may have made, proposes to make or could make) a disclosure that qualifies for protection and the belief or suspicion is the reason, or part of the reason, for the conduct. In addition, a person cannot make a threat to cause detriment to a Discloser (or another person) in relation to a disclosure. Examples of detrimental conduct that are prohibited under the law include the:
 - a. dismissal of an employee;
 - b. injury of an employee in his or her employment;
 - c. alteration of an employee's position or duties to his or her disadvantage;
 - d. discrimination between an employee and other employees of the same employer;

 - f. harm or injury to a person, including psychological harm;
 - g. damage to a person's property, reputation, business or financial position; or
 - h. any other damage to a person;
- (iii) compensation and other remedies: a Discloser (or any other employee or person) can seek compensation and other remedies through the courts if they suffer loss, damage or injury because of a disclosure and the Company failed to take reasonable precautions and exercise due diligence to prevent the detrimental conduct. A Discloser should seek independent legal advice in relation to compensation and other remedies; and
- (iv) civil, criminal and administrative liability protection: a Discloser is protected from any of the following in relation to their disclosure:
 - a. civil liability (e.g. any legal action against the Discloser for breach of an employment contract, duty of confidentiality or another contractual obligation);
 - b. criminal liability (e.g. attempted prosecution of the Discloser for unlawfully releasing information, or other use of the disclosure against the Discloser in a prosecution other than for making a false disclosure); and

- c. administrative liability (e.g. disciplinary action for making the disclosure).

The protections referred to in this clause 7(d)(iv) do not grant immunity for misconduct a Discloser has engaged in that is revealed in their disclosure.

- (e) The protections referred to in clause 7(d) of this Policy apply not only to internal disclosures, but to disclosures to legal practitioners, regulatory and other external bodies, and public interest and emergency disclosures that are made in accordance with the Corporations Act.

- (a) A report can be made anonymously and will still be protected under the Corporations Act. However, it may be difficult for the Company to properly investigate or take other action to address the matters disclosed in anonymous reports. In circumstances where the Discloser has not consented to the disclosure of their identity, the matter may be referred for investigation, but the investigator will be required to take all reasonable steps to reduce the risk that the Discloser will be identified as a result of the investigation.
- (b) A Discloser can choose to remain anonymous while making a disclosure, over the course of the investigation and after the investigation is finished. A Discloser may also refuse to answer that they feel could reveal their identity at any time, including during follow-up conversations. Furthermore, a Discloser who wishes to remain anonymous should maintain ongoing two-way communication with the Company, so the entity can ask follow-up questions or provide feedback.
- (c) Information about a Discloser's identity and information that is likely to lead to the identification of the Discloser may be disclosed in the following circumstances:

All investigations will be conducted in a fair and independent manner and all reasonable efforts will be made to preserve confidentiality of an investigation.
- (b) To avoid jeopardizing an investigation, a Discloser who has made a report under this Policy is required to keep confidential the fact that a report has been made (subject to any legal requirements).
- (c) Where a Discloser wishes to remain anonymous, the Discloser's identity will not be disclosed to the investigator or to any other person. Information that is likely to lead to the identification of the Discloser can be disclosed without the Discloser's consent, provided that:
 - (i) it is disclosed for the purpose of reasonably investigating the matter; and
 - (ii) all reasonable steps are taken to reduce the risk that the Discloser will be identified.

Any such stand-down or temporary transfer may only continue for the duration of the investigation. If the investigation determines that the allegations are not substantiated, the employee or officer must be immediately reinstated to full duties.

- (b) Any disclosures that implicate an employee or officer must be kept confidential, even if the Discloser has consented to the disclosure of their identity, and should only be disclosed to those persons who have a need to know the information for the proper performance of their functions under this Policy, or for the proper investigation of the report. An employee or officer who is implicated in a disclosure has a right to be informed of the allegations against them, and must be given an opportunity to respond to those allegations and provide additional information, if relevant, in the course of an investigation into those allegations (subject to the Discloser's right to anonymity).

ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY

The Company strictly prohibits bribery and other unlawful or improper payments made to any individual or entity, as outlined in this Policy. This Policy applies to all persons and entities within the Company’s Group, across all operations globally. This Policy reflects the laws that apply in each country in which the Company operates or trades.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Policy:

- (a) “Board” means the board of directors of the Company.
- (b) “Bribery” involves improperly giving, offering or promising a benefit (monetary or otherwise) to a person, to obtain or retain a business advantage that is not legitimately due or to induce or reward the improper exercise of the duties or functions of a Public Official or a person within the public or private sector.
- (c) “Company Personnel” means all directors, officers and employees of the Company, and all subsidiaries, contractors, secondees, consultants, agents and other individuals or entities that are effectively controlled by the Company or act on its behalf (either directly or indirectly).
- (d) “Group” means the Company and its subsidiaries.
- (e) “Public Official” includes:
 - (i) an employee, official or contractor of a government body or state-owned or state- controlled enterprise;
 - (ii) a person performing the duties of an office or position created under a law of a foreign country or by the custom or convention of a country, such as a member of a royal family;
 - (iii) a person in the service of a government body including a member of the military or the police force;
 - (iv) a politician, judge or member of the legislature of a local government authority, state, province or country;
 - (v) an employee, contractor or person otherwise in the service of a public international organisation (such as the United Nations);
 - (vi) an individual who is or who holds himself or herself out to be an authorised intermediary or representative of a Public Official; or
 - (vii) a party official or candidate for public office.

- (f) a “Sanctions Law” is one which restricts trade or prohibits other transactions with particular countries, individuals or entities and which has been imposed by Australia, the United Nations or by any country with or in which the Company does business or which otherwise applies to the Company Personnel.

2. ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY

2.1 Introduction

- (a) The Company is committed to conducting its business in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations and in accordance with the highest standards of ethical behaviour at all times.
- (b) The Company prohibits any activity that seeks to bribe or otherwise improperly influence a Public Official in any country to act (or omit to act) in a way that differs from that official’s proper duties, obligations and standards of conduct.
- (c) The Company also prohibits any activity that seeks to bribe or otherwise improperly influence any other individual or company in the public or private sector to act (or omit to act) in a way that differs from the proper performance of their role or function.

2.2 Application of Policy

- (a) The Policy applies to all directors, officers and employees of the Company, and all subsidiaries, contractors, secondees, consultants, agents and other individuals or entities that are effectively controlled by the Company or act on its behalf (either directly or indirectly) (“Company Personnel”). It is the responsibility of all Company Personnel to understand and comply with this Policy and to follow the reporting requirements set out in this Policy.
- (b) Any queries regarding how to apply this Policy to a particular event or circumstance should be directed to the Managing Director and Company Secretary.
- (c) Overall responsibility for the administration of this Policy lies with the Company’s Board.

2.3 The Laws Apply in Australia and Overseas

Laws prohibiting bribery and other improper payments apply in each country in which the Company operates or trades. In addition, a number of these laws, such as the Australian Criminal Code, the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the UK Bribery Act 2010, have extra-territorial reach. This means that, for example, under Australian law an Australian citizen may be prosecuted in Australia even where the relevant activity occurred entirely overseas. These laws apply to the Group as well as Company Personnel.

2.4 Prohibitions and Requirements

The conduct prohibited and/or required by this Policy is set out below.

3. PROHIBITION ON BRIBERY

3.1 General prohibition

- (a) The Company prohibits the giving, offering, promising, authorising, accepting or requesting of a bribe.
- (b) Bribery involves improperly giving, offering or promising a benefit (monetary or otherwise) to a person, to:
 - (i) obtain or retain a business advantage that is not legitimately due; or
 - (ii) to induce or reward the improper exercise of the duties or functions of a Public Official or a person within the public or private sector.
- (c) The benefit can be direct or indirect.
- (d) It is irrelevant whether the payee or recipient of the act of bribery works in the public or private sector. The relevant laws apply to bribery of Public Officials as well as bribery in relation to any commercial transaction in the private sector.
- (e) It is irrelevant whether the bribe is accepted or ultimately paid. Merely offering the bribe will be a contravention of this Policy and will usually be sufficient for an offence to be committed.
- (f) Liability may arise notwithstanding that the benefit is given or offered indirectly to the person who is sought to be influenced, for instance to a business associate or family member.
- (g) In addition to the above, you should check whether any Public Officials you deal with have their own code of conduct or are subject to local laws relating to acceptance of hospitality and gifts. In the Australian public service sector there is a Code of Conduct and Values as well as individual agency guidelines. These guidelines generally provide that acceptance of gifts or hospitality will not be appropriate in a range of circumstances, including where the provider of the gift or hospitality is involved in a tender process with the agency or is the subject of a decision within the discretionary power or substantial influence of the government employee concerned. However, outside such circumstances, the guidelines do permit some acceptance of hospitality in circumstances where that hospitality may genuinely assist the agency to develop and maintain constructive relationships with stakeholders.

4. PROHIBITION ON FACILITATION PAYMENTS

- (a) The Company prohibits the making of facilitation payments.
- (b) Facilitation payments are minor unofficial payments made to Public Officials either directly or indirectly to expedite or secure the performance of routine government action (for example, to facilitate the expedition of applications for permits, licences, etc). Facilitation payments are prohibited under the laws of many countries in which the Company operates (e.g. Zimbabwe and Australia among others) and under this Policy.

5. PROHIBITION ON SECRET COMMISSIONS

- (a) The Company prohibits the paying or receiving of secret commissions or payments to any person or entity.
- (b) Secret commissions or payments occur where a commission from a third party is taken or solicited without disclosing that commission to their principal. The secret commission is given as an inducement to that person to use their position to influence the conduct of their principal's business. This would include, for instance, making a payment to an employee or agent of a customer of the Company, where that employee or agent does not disclose the payment to the customer, in return for obtaining a commercial advantage to the Company from that customer.

6. PROHIBITION ON IMPROPER GIFTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

- (a) The Company prohibits the giving or receiving of gifts, entertainment or sponsored travel in circumstances which could be considered to give rise to undue influence.
- (b) Gifts, entertainment and sponsored travel must not be provided or accepted unless in accordance with this Policy.
- (c) The practice of giving corporate gifts and arranging corporate hospitality varies between countries, regions and industries, and what may be common and appropriate in one place may not be in another. Company Personnel must approach this issue carefully and conservatively.

7. PROHIBITION ON MONEY LAUNDERING

- (a) The Company prohibits any forms of money laundering in connection with its business activities.
- (b) Money laundering is the process by which a person or entity conceals the existence of an illegal source of income and then disguises that income to make it appear legitimate.
- (c) Use by the Company of proceeds of illegal activity can give rise to liability to the Company and/or to individuals involved in that conduct.
- (d) If you become aware of any transaction that you think might involve the payment or receipt of proceeds of any unlawful activity you should contact the Managing Director and Company Secretary immediately.

8. PROHIBITION ON BREACH OF SANCTIONS

- (a) The Company prohibits the making of any payment or engaging in any transaction that is in breach of any Sanctions Law. This includes:
 - (i) the providing or receiving of any payment, other benefit, goods or service, directly or indirectly, to or from any individual or entity that is subject to a Sanctions Law;
 - (ii) any activity in connection with a designated country, where that activity is prohibited by a Sanctions Law;

- (iii) encouraging, permitting or otherwise allowing any person or entity acting on behalf of the Company to engage in any conduct or transaction that is prohibited by a Sanctions Law; and
 - (iv) any measure intended to circumvent prohibitions imposed under a Sanctions Law.
- (b) The Company also prohibits engaging or continuing to engage with a third party where it is expected or likely that the nature of the engagement may breach a Sanctions Law.
 - (c) Sanctions are subject to frequent change. If you are uncertain whether a Sanctions Law applies in a particular situation you should consult with the Managing Director and Company Secretary.

9. APPLICATION TO THIRD PARTIES: AGENTS, INTERMEDIARIES, DISTRIBUTORS, SUPPLIERS, CONTRACTORS, JOINT VENTURE PARTNERS AND MERGER AND ACQUISITION TARGETS

9.1 Prohibition on provision of benefit for improper purpose through an agent or third party

- (a) The Company engages with a broad range of third parties in a variety of circumstances, particularly in its trading activities and across the activities of its supply chain, including the sale and procurement of goods.
- (b) In certain circumstances, the Company may be liable for the improper actions of these third parties.
- (c) The Company prohibits the provision of a benefit to a third party where it is expected or possible that some or all of that benefit will be provided or offered to another person, in order to obtain any improper business advantage for the Company.

9.2 Internal controls

- (a) Where the Company proposes to engage a third party to represent it or act on its behalf, it is important to implement appropriate controls to ensure that the actions of the third party will not adversely affect the Company. These third parties might include agents, distributors, intermediaries and suppliers.
- (b) Third parties who pose particular risk to the Company of breaching anti-bribery laws include those that operate in developing or emerging economies (which includes many African countries), or are involved in negotiating any business arrangements or transactions with the public or private sector on behalf of the Company in any country (including bidding for tenders, negotiating supply contracts, arranging leases or licences or providing transportation or customs clearance services).

9.3 Communication of the Policy

The standards of conduct set out in this Policy should be clearly communicated to third parties, together with the expectation that the third parties comply with the standards.

9.4 Contracts with third parties

Contracts with third parties should be in writing and contain relevant anti-corruption clauses and assurances and prohibition on conduct that would breach Sanctions Laws.

9.5 Oversight of third parties

The Company employees who engage third parties must maintain oversight of the work of those third parties, including where appropriate, receiving progress reports, reviewing invoices and other documentation, in order to determine that legitimate work has been done and improper payments have not been made.

10. DUE DILIGENCE

10.1 Where it is proposed that the Company:

- (a) enter into a joint venture, due diligence must always be conducted on the proposed partner before entering into the joint venture relationship,
- (b) acquire or invest (either solely or conjunction with another party) in a third party entity, due diligence must always be conducted on the entity concerned; or
- (c) enter into any transaction in a country in which it has not previously conducted business, due diligence must always be conducted on the country concerned.

In the case of the first two bullet points, the due diligence investigation must define how the asset was acquired by the proposed partner or third party entity.

Where due diligence is required, a due diligence report must be completed and retained. If any issues of concern or 'red flags' are identified by this due diligence, the Managing Director and Company Secretary must be informed immediately. The Managing Director and Company Secretary will then determine if a more detailed investigation is required prior to engaging in the proposed relationship.

10.2 Joint Ventures

- (a) The Company will ensure that any joint venture that is effectively controlled by the Company through ownership, management or other involvement complies with this Policy, or has in place equivalent policies and procedures.
- (b) The Company is committed to working with its joint venture partners to achieve the standards outlined in this Policy where the Company does not exercise effective control within the joint venture. The Company will take such steps as are open to it to require that any such joint venture complies with the standards set out in this Policy.
- (c) Company Personnel who are involved in the operations of joint venture partners should pay particular attention to signs of improper payments and should voice objections where appropriate. If such a Company representative becomes aware of evidence that a joint venture partner has engaged or may engage in improper payments, that evidence must be reported to the Managing Director and Company Secretary.

11. DONATIONS AND SPONSORSHIPS

Donations and sponsorships must not be used as a means of making improper payments.

12. ACCOUNTING, BOOKS AND RECORDS

- (a) The Company is required to maintain a system of internal accounting controls and make and keep books and records which accurately and fairly reflect, in reasonable detail, the parties, the payment arrangements and the purpose of all transactions and disposition of assets.
- (b) No undisclosed or unrecorded fund or account may be established for any purpose.
- (c) False, misleading or incomplete record keeping is a criminal and civil offence in many countries where the Company operates or trades.
- (d) The Company's internal audit function will carry out periodic reviews to test the effectiveness of this Policy and identify potential bribery and corruption risks to the Company.

13. CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE

- (a) Bribery and the other types of improper payments prohibited by this Policy are prohibited under the laws of all countries in which the Company operates. Breaches may expose the Company and Company Personnel to criminal penalties and/or civil action.
- (b) Possible penalties include substantial fines and, for individuals, imprisonment. For the Company, the risks also include exclusion from tendering for government or private contracts and reputational damage.
- (c) Conscious disregard, deliberate ignorance and willful blindness will not avoid liability in relation to any of the matters set out in this Policy.
- (d) Failure to observe this Policy by Company Personnel will also lead to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include termination of employment.

14. REPORTING BRIBERY OR OTHER IMPROPER PAYMENTS

- (a) The Company recognises the value and importance of its directors, officers and employees reporting identified or suspected instances of bribery, secret commissions, money laundering, facilitation payments or other improper payments and strongly supports such disclosures and reports.
- (b) All persons should remain alert to any instances of directors, officers, employees, subsidiaries or joint venture partners, agents, suppliers, distributors or other contractors attempting to, or engaging in, bribery or other improper conduct or otherwise not meeting the standards of behaviour required under this Policy.

- (c) Reports concerning suspected or actual instances of bribery or other improper practices should be made to Managing Director and Company Secretary.
- (d) If you are unsure whether a particular act constitutes bribery, a facilitation payment, a secret commission or money laundering, or if you have any other queries, you should ask the Managing Director and Company Secretary.
- (e) The Company will take all available steps to protect from detrimental treatment anyone who refuses to take part in conduct that may constitute bribery or improper conduct or who raises genuine concerns in respect of any such conduct, even if they turn out to be mistaken or that refusal may affect the Company's business.
- (f) Detrimental treatment includes dismissal, disciplinary action, threats or other unfavourable treatment connected with raising a concern. If you are subjected to such treatment, you should inform the Managing Director and Company Secretary immediately.
- (g) Suppliers, contractors, agents or other business partners who have any concerns which they wish to raise under this Policy should approach the Managing Director and Company Secretary.

15. TRAINING, MONITORING AND REVIEW

- (a) Training on this Policy forms part of the induction process for all relevant Company Personnel.
- (b) Relevant existing Company Personnel will receive periodic training updates on how to comply with this Policy and will confirm that they understand and will comply with this Policy.
- (c) The Managing Director and Company Secretary will monitor the implementation of this Policy and will review on an ongoing basis the Policy's suitability and effectiveness. Internal control systems and procedures will be periodically audited to ensure that they are effective in minimising the risk of non-compliance with this Policy.

16. WHAT IS BRIBERY: EXAMPLES

16.1 Offering a bribe

- (a) You offer a third party tickets to a major sporting event, but only if they agree to do business with us or you offer the tickets thinking that it is more likely than not that you will not get the business unless you offer the tickets. This would be an offence as you are making the offer to gain a commercial and contractual advantage. We may also be found to have committed an offence because the offer has been made to obtain business for us.
- (b) It may also be an offence for the third party to accept your offer.
- (c) Remember: It will still be a bribe even if the potential client refuses your tickets. A bribe need not be accepted to be an offence.

16.2 Receiving a bribe

A third party gives your friend or relative a job, but makes it clear that in return they expect you to use your influence in our organisation to ensure we continue to do business with them. It is an offence for a third party to make such an offer. It would be an offence for you to accept the offer as you would be doing so to gain a personal advantage.

16.3 Bribing a foreign official

- (a) You arrange for the business to pay an additional payment to a foreign government official to speed up an administrative process, such as obtaining a permit for business-related activities. The offence of bribing a foreign government official has been committed as soon as the offer is made. This is because it is made to gain a business advantage for us. We may also be found to have committed an offence.
- (b) Note these examples are intended to assist in comprehension by providing a guide of the types of behaviours and circumstances in contemplation. This list is not definitive.
